REMUNERATION

The summer staff who work at Homewood do so as volunteers. Thus no pay can be expected. We are confident that this is more than compensated by the growth that will happen in your life as well as the life-friends you will make.

We do offer a bursary to those who after spending their summer with us at Homewood go to some post-secondary education. The amount is based upon the number of weeks worked here (at least 4), the availability of funds and your demonstrated need. The bursary application form is available upon request toward the end of the summer.

SUMMER STAFF SUPPORT

At this time, Camp Homewood does not require summer staff to raise their own financial support. However, staff may do so if they so choose. If you desire to raise support, Camp Homewood is willing to provide a letter to aid you in that process. Contact the director for further assistance in this area.
